CalFresh Food is California's name for the federal food program called Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) that used to be known as Food Stamps.

CalFresh Food is a nutrition program that allows you to buy healthy food at most food outlets, grocery stores, farmers markets and some restaurants.

Eligibility is based on your family size, income, and some living costs.

Benefits are deposited on an Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) card, that works like a debit card.

If you need food right away, you may qualify for Expedited Services, if you qualify you will get benefits within 3 days.

SANTA CLARA COMMUNITY COLLEGES
Seven college sites offer CalWORKS clients, evening and weekend classes. The college goal is to help clients transition from gaining an education in an in-demand field, to finding and securing meaningful employment during the college experience. Through funding from the County of Santa Clara, CalWORKS students receive: childcare, transportation, book, supplies and other school related expenses.
